

LIFE WITH A GENETIC KIDNEY DISEASE

Patient and Family Support Day

It can be stressful when you or your family member is at risk of a genetic kidney disease. Learn more from our renal clinicians, patients and their families on how you can cope with this diagnosis.

8:45am Registration

9:00am Opening Speech

Adj Asst Prof Yeo See Cheng
Head & Senior Consultant,
Renal Medicine, TTSH

9:20am Learning about the stages of Chronic Kidney Disease

Dr Lim Ciwei Cynthia
Senior Consultant, Renal Medicine, SGH

9:40am What I need to know about Alport Syndrome and genetic kidney disease?

Dr Irene Mok
Senior Consultant, Renal Medicine, SGH

10:00am The risks and limitations of genetic testing

Ms Sylvia Kam Pei-Rong
Senior Genetic Counsellor, Genetics
Service, Department of Paediatrics, KKH

10:20am Refreshment Break

10:45am The potential benefits of genetic testing, and the steps involved

Dr Chan Gek Cher
Consultant, Division of Nephrology,
Department of Medicine, NUH

11:05am Riding the social-emotional roller coaster of kidney genetic testing: You are not alone

Dr Lim Ru Sin
Consultant, Renal Medicine, TTSH

11:25am Patient sharing: Living with a genetic kidney disease

RAPIDS is a Clinical Implementation Pilot supported by Precision Health Research, Singapore (PRECISE).

09-NOV
2024
SATURDAY

REGISTER NOW!

9:00AM-12:00PM

TTSH Theatrette,
Ward Block Level 1

11 Jalan Tan Tock Seng, Singapore 308433

Scan the QR or visit for.sg/kidney-support-day

Organised by:

Supported by:

